

THE MISSION-ARANSAS NATIONAL ESTUARINE RESEARCH RESERVE

BAY TALKS 2017

Join us for a series of free presentations about estuary, coastal, and marine environments.

Fridays, 12 - 1 pm, January 13th - March 10th
Bay Education Center, 121 Seabreeze Drive, Rockport, TX

January 13

*Invasive Species in the Coastal Bend:
How the Mission-Aransas Reserve is Battling Back*

Kathleen Swanson

January 20

Watching Wintering Whooping Cranes
Ray Kirkwood

January 27

TEXAS-sized Marine Debris: Problems and Solutions
Jace Tunnell

February 3

*Coastal Bend Bays & Estuaries
Program: Protecting and Restoring the Bays & Estuaries of the Texas Coastal Bend*

Rae Mooney

February 10

The Seagrass Blues: An Ode to Carbon
Victoria Congdon

February 17

Does Organic Matter Have Anything to do with the Health of Coastal Ecosystems?
Zhanfei Liu

February 24

Rockport and the Aransas County Coastal Resiliency Effort
Patrick Rios and Amanda Torres

March 3

Wetlands: Hidden Gems in Our Own Backyard
Dana Sjostrom and Jacqueline Rose

March 10

Hurricane Impact: A Close Examination of Hurricane Structure, Potential Hazards and How We Forecast These Storms
John Metz

Visit our website for more information: www.missionaransas.org

